

Guy Clips for the Flying Scot

Guy clips are small strips of plastic that are used to make a captive hook out of the standard, hooked, chainplate adjuster. Use electrical tape to wrap the clip and adjuster in the position shown below. Do not put too much bend in the clip as this may cause it to snap off more easily as it ages in the sun.

